

BackCountry Horsemen of the Name of Chapter

Annual Packing Clinic

Date

Time

Location

If you yearn to pack into the backcountry of Idaho either on your own horse or mule or those of others, you won't want to miss this clinic. Everyone is invited to attend and learn how to get the gear on your stock and get safely on the trail. Even if you are already a packer, you'll be exposed to new ideas. Speakers are seasoned backcountry travelers and will use hands on participation while covering:

- Horses & Mules- The Pack stock
- Decker & Sawbuck Saddles
- Different packing methods & tying the loads
- Planning and Preparing for a Trip
- Types of Equipment
- Backcountry Horse First Aide

So bring yourself, and yes your riding partner and come join us. Stock will be provided. The cost of () includes () & gives you a membership in the Name of Chapter Backcountry Horseman of Idaho. If you are already a member, the cost is free! Any questions, call Coordinator Name and Phone Number.